

PANAMA DIGITAL NOMAD VISA REQUIREMENTS & DOCUMENTS

The Panama Digital Nomad Visa is a non-resident visa to live in Panama as a remote worker. It is valid for 9 months, extendable for the same period. It allows the visa holder to telework in Panama and does not require additional permits from another state entity.

Application Requirements and Documents:

- Have a contract with a foreign company of transnational character. This means being a teleworker, or a self-employed teleworker.
- Perform functions with deliverables outside of Panama.
- Receive foreign income of at least USD $36,000 per year, or its equivalent in another currency.
- Fill out the corresponding form. In this form, the applicant assumes the return costs or repatriation cost to his/her country of origin or destination, if necessary.
- Three passport-size photographs.
- Medical insurance of the applicant, which must be valid in Panama during the time of stay.
- Proof of the existence of the foreign company in the place where it is registered.
- Letter on company letterhead, signed by the legal representative, where it is mentioned the applicant's general data, position, functions, monthly income, work modality (remote), and the commitment to assume the expenses of return or repatriation if necessary.
- Sworn declaration of non-acceptance of a job or service offered in the national territory. Payment of 250 balboas in favor of the National Immigration Service.

Ready to apply?

Our team will be glad to assist you. Send us a note to info@kraemerlaw.com to review your circumstances and start the process to obtain the Panama Digital Nomad Visa.